

WHERE to RETIRE

January/February 2011
Editorial Calendar

Closing Date: October 1, 2010

Publication Date: December 1, 2010

City Profiles

Ormond Beach, FL

The natural beauty of this Atlantic coast gem shows off in the Ormond Scenic Loop and Trail, a 30-mile system of parks, biking paths and roadways along the beach and Intracoastal Waterway. Once a winter home for the rich and famous, Ormond Beach offers a high quality of life and top medical facilities.

Charleston, SC

A historic charmer and bastion of Southern gentility, this city also boasts pristine beaches, overflowing farmers markets and an outstanding restaurant scene from high-end cafes to down-home cooking, with the “slow food” movement proving popular.

Columbia, MO

Chock-full of the usual college-town amenities — continuing education, cultural and sports events and an energetic population — Columbia also offers live music, shopping and dining in its up-and-coming downtown, known as The District. Adjoining Rock Bridge Memorial State Park adds greenery.

St. George, UT

Outdoor enthusiasts can go wild in this scenic spot, where golfers choose from 10 courses and hikers and nature buffs explore nearby Zion and Bryce Canyon national parks along with forests and other wilderness areas. A growing active-adult community, SunRiver St. George, also attracts retirees.

Features

8 Low-Tax Towns

Escape high property taxes in these eight retiree-friendly, budget-conscious locales.

8 Healthy Havens

With highly regarded hospitals and clinics, these places put you close to today’s leaders in advanced medical care. Our selection presents a range of lifestyles, from smaller cities to large metro areas with options for both urban and suburban living.

Departments

Financial Consultant: Setting the Stage for a Sale — get tips from the experts on how to dress your home to make it more attractive to potential buyers.

Best Neighborhood: Brunswick Forest, Leland, NC